

association, and under its corporate seal, showing the location of the principal office established or proposed to be established by said company or association within this State, and also the location of any subordinate office or offices so established or proposed to be established by the said company or association within this State; and said statement shall also contain an agreement that the services of legal process upon any of its said officers shall be a sufficient service upon said company or association.

Subordinate
agents or employees.

Additional
offices.

Duty of the principal
officer.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That after any such company or association shall have complied with the provisions of the preceding section of this Act, and before any of the subordinate agents or employees of any such company or association shall transact any business at any of said subordinate office, the said company or association shall cause to be paid to the Comptroller of the Treasury, for the agent of each subordinate office located as aforesaid, the sum of two dollars, upon receipt whereof the said Comptroller shall have been so made as aforesaid, to transact the business of the said company at their said respective subordinate offices; and any such company or association thereafter desiring to establish an additional office or offices, shall file an additional statement setting forth the location of the same, and an agreement in regard to services of legal process as aforesaid, and shall pay the sum of two dollars for each license to said additional agent or agents, as aforesaid.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the principal cashier, or other principal officers or agents of any such company or association, which shall have transacted business in this State under this Act, or the agent or employee in charge of the principal office of such company, shall annually, on the first day of June, report under oath to the Comptroller of the Treasury the whole amount of earnings charged or received by or on account of such company or association, for business done in this State for the year or a part of a year, ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December, which report shall show the gross amounts of earnings so charged