

or received at the said principal office and at each of the said subordinate offices; and if the one per centum of said gross earnings so charged or received, as aforesaid, shall exceed the price of the license or licenses issued on account of said company or association, as aforesaid, there shall be paid into the Treasury, before taking out the license or licenses for or on account of said company or association for the ensuing year, the whole excess of such one per centum over and above the price of said license or licenses, as aforesaid. Exceed price of license.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That if any such company or association shall desire to transact business in this State, and shall have no principal (office within the State to which the other officers of said company or association to make application, shall be subordinate, and shall have no principal,) agent to whom the other agents of said company or association within this State shall be compelled to account, then and in that event it shall be the duty of each and every agent of such company or association to make application to the Comptroller for license to transact the business of the said company, at the office or place of business where said agent may be employed, or may desire to transact business as aforesaid, and at the time of making said application, and before license shall be issued, such agent shall pay to the Comptroller the sum of three hundred dollars if the office at which such agent is to transact the business of the said company or association be located in the City of Baltimore, and the sum of twenty dollars if such office be located in any of the counties of this State outside of said city. No principal office.
Duty of each agent.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That every such agent of any such company or association, as shall have no principal office in this State as aforesaid, shall annually, on the first day of June, report under oath to the Comptroller the whole amount of earnings charged or received by or on account of such company or association, for business done at the office or place of business of such agent for the year or part of a year ending on the preceeding thirty-first day of December, and if the one per centum of said To report to Comptroller.