

CHAPTER 363.

AN ACT to allow the Trustees of the Maryland Institution for the instruction of the blind, to locate the bed of North street, if extended into Baltimore county, from North avenue to Denmead street.

Authorized and empowered to locate bed of North street: SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the "Trustees of the Maryland Institution for the instruction of the blind," be and * hereby authorized and empowered to locate the bed of North street, (if extending in the County of Baltimore from its present line of intersection of the north line of North avenue,) a distance of one hundred and seventy-seven feet east from a line of intersection of the present northwestern intersection of said street with the north line of North avenue, and continuing said western line of North street (as offsetted,) in a line parallel to the line of North street if extending, as designed by a plat, known as Popleton's plat, a distance of three hundred and three feet to the south line of Denmead street, and also to locate the eastern line of North street, (if extending into Baltimore county,) easterly on the north line of North avenue, a distance of sixty-six feet from the northwest corner of the intersection of North street (as offsetted) and the north line of North avenue, and continuing the said eastern line of North street (as offsetted) on a line parrallel to the western line of North street (as offsetted) a distance of three hundred and three feet to the south line of Denmead street, thereby substituting a bed for North street from North avenue to Denmead street of the width of sixty-six feet, in lieu of a bed for North street, between the aforesaid streets, of the width of sixty feet, as designed by a continuation of North street according to a plat known as Popleton's plat.

Perpetually closed. SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That whenever the "Trustees of the Maryland Institution for the instruction of the blind," shall open North street from North avenue to Denmead street, as hereinbefore mentioned, as offsetted, then North street from North avenue to