

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the residue of the ^{Residue of} proceeds of sale of said property, or so much thereof ^{proceeds.} as may be necessary, shall be applied by said County Commissioners, as to the cash in hand, immediately upon the passage of this bill, and as to the credit portion of said proceeds, immediately upon the payment thereof, to the liquidation in the order of their numbers of such bonds of said county as shall be due and payable, and in default of such overdue bonds to the payment of such other bonds of said county, not yet matured, as the holders thereof may be willing to receive payment of; and all such bonds, whether paid before or after maturity, shall be cancelled by said County Commissioners immediately upon their surrender, in the presence of the Judges of the Orphans' Court of said county, of which said bonds and their cancellation full record as to dates, numbers and amounts, shall be made and preserved by said commissioners.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said County ^{To give} Commissioners of Baltimore county are hereby ^{notice.} authorized and required, whenever they have funds for this purpose, to give notice by advertisement published in such newspaper or newspapers as they shall select, at least once a week for four successive weeks, and such other notice as they shall think proper, of the number, (beginning at number one,) denomination and amount of matured bonds to be ^{Redemption} redeemed, so that the holders thereof may be able ^{of bonds.} to identify them, and also that the interest will cease on said matured bonds advertised for redemption after the expiration of sixty days after the first publication of said notice, the date of which first publication shall be made to appear in the body of said notice; and in case the matured bonds of said county are insufficient to absorb the money in hand, or in case there be no matured bonds of said county, then the said County Commissioners shall be and are hereby required to give sixty days' notice by advertisement, ^{Redeem out-} in like manner, of the amount of money in their ^{standing} hands for this purpose, and that they will redeem ^{obligations.} to that extent any outstanding obligations of said county, and if no application in sufficient amount be made, according to the exigency of said notice, sufficient in