

head for every hawk or owl killed in said counties, on the production of such proof as is required by sections one, two and three, of article thirty-one of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Crows."

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take In force. effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1872.

---

CHAPTER 382.

AN ACT granting to the United States of America a further addition to the site of the Naval School at Annapolis, and ceding the jurisdiction over the same.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the jurisdiction and control over the lands hereinafter described, lying contiguous to and extending into the water beyond the water line of the lands heretofore granted and ceded to the United States of America for naval and military purposes, as the site of the Naval School at Annapolis, and the several additions thereto, together with the lands so hereinafter described, be and the same are hereby granted and ceded to the United States of America, as a further addition to the site of the said Naval School; beginning for the same at the southeast corner of the Naval School grounds, formerly the southeast corner of the State Government House Square, on the line of the northeast side of Hanover street in the City of Annapolis, and running with said line in a southeasterly direction into the water, one hundred feet beyond the southeast corner of the wharf of the said Naval School at the foot of Hanover street, where is placed a buoy marked No. 1; thence running with a straight line in a northeasterly direction to a point in a line projected into the water from the southeast corner of the wharf at which