

rities and their successors, their agents, workmen and servants, to enter at any and all times thereafter upon said premises for the purpose of erecting necessary and convenient works and machines, cutting and opening trenches, laying and fixing or of repairing pipes and covering the same, and of doing all such matters and things as may be requisite for carrying this law into full and complete operation.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said corporate authorities and Water Board hereinafter named, shall have full power and authority to establish reservoirs, &c. and public fountains, in such parts of the streets and squares of said town as they may think proper, and the Mayor and Council shall grant to all persons whomsoever the privilege of using said water so to be introduced, in such manner, and on such terms and conditions, and in such quantities respectively, as they shall think fit, and to pass all ordinances touching the said water-works, and the distribution of said water through the town, and in all the streets of said town as speedily as possible, and it shall be the duty of the said corporation so to do.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any person or persons, designedly or negligently injuring the said water-works, or any part thereof, or obstructing the passage of said water, or negligently, or wilfully allowing said water to run to waste, or in any way polluting the same, shall for every offence forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, to be recovered by said corporate authorities, on warrant and execution by and before any Justice of the Peace for Hagerstown, or the County of Washington.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That a Water Board and the same is hereby created for said town, to consist of William T. Hamilton, George W. Harris, M. A. Berry, George R. Bowman and Buchanan Schley; which board shall continue until the works necessary to introduce and distribute said water in said town shall have been completed, when said Water Board shall cease; and in case of vacancy in said board by death, resignation or removal during the pendency of said work, such vacancy shall be filled by appoint-
