

this Act, to levy a tax on all the taxable property within the corporate limits of said town, not exceeding twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars worth of said property, to raise a fund for the purpose of erecting a suitable police station-house in said town, to be collected as other corporation taxes are now collected in said town, and the said burgess and commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized to contract for and superintend the building of said police station-house, and to use the said fund or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay for the same; and the said police station-house, when completed by the contractors and accepted by the burgess and commissioners of said town, shall be used for the general police purposes of said town.

Fines and forfeitures.

SEC. 332. All fines and forfeitures imposed by the ordinances of the burgess and commissioners of said town shall be imposed by the burgess of said town, or by any Justice of the Peace of Washington county, upon a warrant to be issued by him against the offender, to any constable of said county, and the person convicted in default of payment may be committed to the said police station-house, when the same shall be completed and accepted by the burgess and commissioners of said town, instead of being committed to the jail of Washington county, as is now provided by law, until such fine and forfeiture be paid, unless discharged in the manner provided by section three hundred and thirty-three of said article twenty-one of the Code of Public Local Laws, entitled "Washington county," sub-title "Williamsport."

In force.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1872.
