

CHAPTER 394.

AN ACT supplementary to an Act for the establishment of a school in Caroline county, passed at November session, in the year seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, chapter thirty-three.

WHEREAS, by the provisions of chapter thirty-three, of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, for the establishment of a school in Caroline county, passed at the November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, certain persons were therein named as trustees, with power to appoint their successors, and Preamble.

WHEREAS, in process of time the said trustees departed this life, and the successors appointed by them have also died, and the vacancies occasioned by their decease have not been filled, as provided for in the Act of Assembly hereinbefore mentioned, and Preamble.

WHEREAS, doubts may arise whether the rights and powers of said school, by virtue of said Act of Assembly, as a corporation have not been forfeited by reason of the failure to fill the vacancies aforesaid, therefore, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Act entitled "an Act to establish a school in Caroline county," and to incorporate certain trustees therein named, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, chapter thirty-three, be and is hereby revived, and that the said school be and it is hereby revived and continued; and that Dr. Thomas Hacket, Henry J. Fisher, Charles H. Fleming, Charles E. Jarreel, William E. Barton, Hugh Duffey and Dr. Thomas S. Holt, be and they are hereby declared to be the legal trustees of said school, and shall have all the privileges of the aforesaid Act, as if the same had not been forfeited and lost. Revived.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect and go into operation from the date of its passage. In force.

Approved April 1, 1872.
