

the second day of the term of the said court next succeeding the day of the filing of the said report, and if no objection thereto be made, or if made shall be overruled, the said court shall order the said report, plat and other proceedings of the commissioners to be recorded, and the said court shall have jurisdiction and authority to hear and determine all objections to the said report and proceedings, and may amend or remand the same to the said commissioners for amendment, and the same, when amended, shall be recorded and binding on all persons whomsoever; and the said commissioners shall be and they are hereby authorized to employ counsel to advise them in the execution of the powers vested in them by this Act, and to appear for them in the said court to answer such objections, if any be made as aforesaid; and the County Commissioners of Somerset county are hereby required to pay such compensation to said counsel as the said Circuit Court shall allow.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That after the said report or amended report shall be recorded as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful to build or erect any wharf, pier, improvement, or any structure of any kind in the said river or cove, or extend the same from either shore beyond or outside the building line, established as aforesaid; and every person offending against the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a public nuisance, and on indictment and conviction in the said court, shall be fined a sum equal to the cost of removing said nuisance, and shall be confined in the public jail of the said county till the said fine and cost shall be paid; and to enable the court to determine the amount of the said fine, they shall, at the time of trial, hear evidence of the probable cost of removing such nuisance; and if any person shall unload, discharge, or throw overboard any ballast, shells, stones, earth or other matter, in the said harbor defined as aforesaid, or shall fill up or obstruct the navigation of the same, he or she shall also be guilty of a public nuisance, and shall, on indictment and conviction, as aforesaid, be punished by fine, at the discretion of the court, and be committed as aforesaid till the said fine and costs are paid.