

Existing structures.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That if the said commissioners shall order any existing structures to be removed as aforesaid, and the owner, proprietor or tenant in possession of such structure shall neglect or refuse to remove the same according to the said order, such person shall, for such neglect or refusal, be deemed guilty of a public nuisance, and shall, on indictment and conviction by the said court as aforesaid, be fined a sum equal to the amount of the cost of such removal, and stand committed as aforesaid till the said fine and costs shall be paid.

Compensat'n

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners and their surveyor, if one not of their own body shall be appointed, shall each be entitled to five dollars per day for each day they may serve as such, and ten cents per mile for each mile traveled in the performance of their duties; and all other persons employed by said commissioners to aid them in making said survey and such other duties required by this Act, shall be entitled to one dollar per day, each, to be certified by the said commissioners and paid as hereinafter provided.

Expenses.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the expenses of the said commission and survey, the expense of recording the proceedings, and all other expenses incident to the said commission, not exceeding in the whole the sum of five hundred dollars, shall be assessed, levied and paid by the County Commissioners of the said county, as other county charges are paid; and all fines imposed and collected under the provisions of this Act shall be paid to the said County Commissioners, to be applied to the necessary county expenses.

In force.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect and be in force from the day of its passage and approval.

Approved April 1st, 1872.