

dollars worth of property in any one year, which tax they may have collected as county and State taxes are collected, or they may by ordinance adopt for the benefit of the corporation; and the Mayor, by virtue of his office, for municipal purposes and preserving the peace, shall have all the powers of a Justice of the Peace.

- Salary of Mayor, &c. 133. The Mayor shall receive an annual salary of one hundred dollars, and each councilman twenty-five dollars, to be paid by the corporation.
- Violations of ordinances. 134. The Mayor and Council may provide by ordinance for punishing by fine and imprisonment in the county jail of Washington county, for violations of any of the ordinances of said town; but no fine shall exceed twenty dollars, and no imprisonment exceed twenty days.
- Not eligible for Mayor. 135. No Justice of the Peace shall be eligible to office of Mayor of said town; if he shall be appointed a Justice of the Peace or qualifies as such, he shall then cease to be Mayor of said town.
- To enforce ordinances. 136. The Justices of the Peace, having their offices in Hagerstown, are hereby authorized to enforce the ordinances of said town relating to crimes and punishments, by imposing fines, collect the same or imprison the offender for the non-payment of fines, or as a punishment; that before any of said Justices shall act, they shall prepare for themselves a separate docket to be called the corporation docket, in which a full and explicit record of every case brought before them for a violation of the ordinances of said town, the fine imposed or the imprisonment adjudged, if any, and to whom said fine was paid, as well as the costs and what amount, which docket the said Justices shall respectively present to the Mayor and Council at the end of every three months for inspection, to ascertain the amount of fines collected; and the Mayor or any of said Council may swear any of said Justices, and interrogate them upon oath touching any matter or thing relative to the contents of said docket or what should have been entered thereon; and the said justices shall, at the time of thus presenting said dockets, pay all the fines by them col-
- May swear.
- Pay over fine