

lected, to the Treasurer of said town, and take from him duplicate receipts, one of which shall be presented to the Mayor within ten days after its date, to be used as evidence of the amount therein named having been paid into the treasury; and the said justices shall be entitled to receive as fees, in cases for a violation of the ordinances aforesaid, the same as allowed them in other criminal proceedings.

137. The Mayor and Council shall furnish the Justices of the Peace having their offices in Hagers-town, certified copies of all the ordinances relative to crimes and punishments. Furnish copies of ordinances.

138. If any of the Justices of the Peace fail or neglect, in the discharge of any of the duties imposed upon them, to pay over the fines to the Treasurer as directed, they shall, on conviction in the Circuit Court for Washington county, be fined in the sum of fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding ten months, or both, in the discretion of the court. Failure to pay over.

139. The Mayor may appoint police for said town, not exceeding four in number, and report such appointment to the Council at their next meeting, and if the Council ratify said appointments, then said person or persons shall act as policemen for said town, for one year from the date of said appointment unless removed by the Mayor for misconduct, and in case of removal or vacancy, the Mayor shall appoint others for the unexpired term, subject to ratification by the Council; and that said police shall disperse and suppress all disorderly assemblies in said town, preserve the peace and quiet of said town, arrest all offenders and take them before a Justice of the Peace, having his office in said town, for trial, and execute the process of said justices in matters relative to said town, or preserving the peace thereof; and that said police shall each receive, out of the corporation fund, a sum not less than fifteen dollars and not more than twenty-five dollars per month for their services, and the fees allowed by law to constables in criminal cases. May appoint police. Duties of. Salary.