Also,

The bill, entitled an Act making sundry appropriations for the support of the government for the year ending the first day of January, 1873, endorsed, "passed by yeas and nays."

Mr. Griswold, Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred the bill, entitled an Act to add additional sections to the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Crimes and Punishments," which shall be sections 210, 211, 212, 213 and 214, of the said Article.

Reported back the same with proposed amendments.

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

In section 210, strike out in line 16, "two hundred and fifty dollars," and insert "one hundred dollars."

In line 17, strike out "three months," and insert "one month."

In section 211, strike out in line 15, "one thousand dollars," and insert "five hundred dollars."
