So the veto of the bill by the Governor was sustained.

Said bill was then returned to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Streett, (the rules being suspended.)

The House proceeded to the consideration of bills entitled to a third reading.

The bill, entitled an Act to amend the Public Local Laws of Prince George's county, by adding thereto additional sections, to come in after section 182, of Article XVI. of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's County," imposing a tax on dogs, and appropriating a portion of said taxes as a reward for killing foxes, and to the support of schools in said county,

Being upon a third reading.
