

Goldsborough,	Streett,	Porter,
Mearns,	Hardcastle,	Coles,
Scott,	Deweese,	Young, of Alle.,
Ford, of Q. A.,	Jamart,	Linthicum,
Franklin,	Feig,	Johnson,
Parker,	Markland,	Langrell—32.
Phillips,	Griswold,

Messrs:	NEGATIVE.
Colton, of St. M's,	Waller,	Stewart,
Wells,	Smith,	Colton, of B. city,
Chapman,	Redcliffe,	McColgan,
Shiple, y,	Miller,	Riggs,
Banks,	McCosker,	Robinette,
Butler,	Hamilton, T. H.,	Lamotte, L. A. J—20
Roach,	Hamilton, C. R.,

And the motion prevailed.

So the House at ten o'clock, P. M. adjourned.

SATURDAY, March 16th, 1872.

The House met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Highley, Chaplain.

Present at the call of the roll the following members:

Messrs: Gorman, Speaker, Colton, of St. Mary's Dunbar, Hurtt, Henkle, Shiple, y, Ford, of B. Co., Litzinger, Banks, Butler, Goldsborough, Roach, Waller, Smith, Radcliffe, Mearns, Penington, Scott, Ford, of Queen Anne's, Franklin, Parker, Phillips, Riley, Baldwin, Street, Hardcastle, Deweese, McCosker, Hamilton, T. H., Cooper, Hamilton, C. R., Jamart, Foster, Travers, Clark, of Baltimore City, Colton, of Baltimore City, Kirk, Chaisty, Harig, Feig, McColgan, Markland, Young, of Wash., Hilton, Riggs, Clark, of Mont., Porter, Coles, Young, of Alle., Robinette, Lamotte, L. A. J., Lamotte, H. H., Linthicum, Johnson, Langrell—55.

Mr. Ford, of Queen Anne's, presented the petition of C. F. Abbott and one thousand, one hundred and ten other citizens of Baltimore city, against any change in the Sunday Law,