Hanmer William: Willard. who Comg called to y Barr are duely sworne. and having heard the whole proceedings, and also rightly understood Cole their Attempts, returned their thanks, and gave Cort Answer they the above said Jury Comg returned Cole pet and Comg called. the Jury, unanimously agreed delivered in their Verdict wch Comg read is as followeth. viz.

We the Jurors do find that ye Defendt pay unto the plaintiffe, fifty pounds of Sotland for the Ballance of Account and also pay the Cost of Suit.

Samuel: Collins Foreman

which Verdict was Ordered to be Entered

Thomas: Dixon. Plt. agt. Jacob: Freeman. Deft.

The plt by due Course at Law having attached one horse in the hands of Mr Richd: Hartnell. valued at 1200: lbs and one mare and Colt in the hands of Sampson Allen valued at 1200. lbs Cane, Cole with garnished appearing according to Summons, and in Court called, to show Cause if any they had why the said horse, mair and Colt should not be condemned according to Law. The Garnisshees pretended they had bought the said horse Mair and Colt of the Defendants wife the further produced a Letter, as they say from the Defendant, conty a Bill of Sale from said Freemans Wife.

The Contested Horse & mistake was at last found to be in Allens hand and the Mair and Colt in Hartnells hand
