

February 11: 1690

maie to aid in relieving me from the sd Oxford his replying wite a bloody Calz if she thus had not would for us her the said saute, and the her be toulnted her furu would be not, so after mite stringing stringing wite the said Oxford yrebasee my self. this the said Depouent saite and further saite net.

the said Depouent saite. late befor me to the rate all above written this 2. day of September 1690 witness my hand & seal at Oxford.

Margaret Kinsley

that she was an eye and ear witness to every word and all and every the attion and carriage of the said Thomas Oxford as is above written and contrary to Margaret Kinsley saying extepid the said touching of her name body, this the said Depouent saite and further saite net.

the said Depouent sworn upon the holy Evangelist to the rate be what is above written this 2. day of September 1690. before me.

Margaret Kinsley

The aforesaid Jury having deliberated upon the whole proceedings, returning their charge good for the said Thomas Oxford as is above written and contrary to Margaret Kinsley saying extepid the
said touching of her name body, this the said Depouent saite and further saite net.

The said Court's opinion was to give the said Thomas Oxford for his sd offence said Oxford and by recognizance did acknowledge himself to be indebted to the said mony of England as also to the said two Justices and did acknowledge himself to be indebted to the sum of 10 aparts to be levied as above for their Malts up to or. Stroules In Court of Esche. Chap. 11 Condition of which recognizance is that if the said Thomas Oxford be of the good behaviour and abarant to all their Malts Lige people of this Province, during the Court's pleasure as also pay fine and Court charges, then the recognizance void, otherwise to be and remain in full power, force and virtue. fine.

Thair Majesties
vs
Thomas Oxford

The said Oxford alias Oxford being called to the Bar in Court, having heard the following Indictment read. to which he pleaded not guilty, and for his tryall put himself upon the Country, whereupon Command was given to the sheriff to summon twelve good and lawfull men of the County, that the matter in question might be the better understood. a List or panel whereof are as followeth to wit
I was over to the Jury