On the 21st of Feb^r 1690 the said John Strawbridge appeared for himself and defended the tort & injury saying that the declaration filed by the said Scamore agt the debt is altogether erroneous and false, for that the said pl^t declares that the debt the 12th of Febr: 1688. at Mombin was indebted to the said pl^t in the sum of 400^l. of tobacco, the defendt saying the same was indebted to the pl^t on account of tobacco, nor did he pay any tobacco to the sd pl^t on the account of Richard Murrak as is set forth in the said declaration, and further the defendt saying that the said Scamore nor any other for him nor demanded any tobacco from the defendt. whereupon the defendt saying there is no tobacco due by him nor any made nor new demanded by the sd Scamore. And therefore the defendt demands and craves judgment of the sd declaration and his damages &c. Jn: Strawbridge.

The defendt puts him self upon the Court
