Passed Jan. 7, 1810

An Act to lay out and open a Road in Caroline County. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 398.

A Supplement, 1810, ch. 87.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Caroline county, that they suffer great inconvenience for want of a road to commence at or near James Pearce's, and running in the straightest direction that the nature of the ground and other circumstances will admit, until it intersects a road at or near Bullock-town, in Caroline county; therefore,

Commissioners appointed to lay out a road.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That James Pearce, James Clemmons, William Start, William Hardcastle and Richard Swift, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to lay out, survey, mark and bound, a public road in said county, not exceeding twenty-five feet wide, at the expense of the petitioners, beginning at or near James Pearce's, and running through the lands of said Pearce, and others, to intersect the road at or near Bullock-town, in such direction as the nature of the ground, and conveniencies of the landholders over which the same may run, will admit; Provided, that the said road shall not be laid out through the lands of any individual without his, her or their consent, in writing, first had and obtained.

Proviso.

To return a plot of the same to clerk of county.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby directed to return a plot of said road, when surveyed, marked and laid out, as aforesaid, to the clerk of the county court, to be by him recorded; which road, when laid out, cleared and made passable, and received by two justices of the peace, to be appointed by the levy court of the county aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as a public road for ever thereafter, and shall be kept up and repaired as all other public roads in said county are.
