CHAP. XLVII.

An Act for the relief of John Carruthers, of the City of Baltimore, an Insolvent Debtor. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 474.

Passed Dec 23.

WHEREAS John Carruthers, of the city of Baltimore, has stated to this general assembly of Maryland, that he is unable to pay his debts; that he has transferred all his property to Messrs. Grundy's and Crosdale, for the benefit of his creditors; that all his creditors in America have assented to discharge him from any future liability as to their claims; that he has certain foreign creditors who have not been consulted or assented to his discharge; that he has now an opportunity of beneficially employing himself, by going to India; that he is apprehensive that his creditors abroad may, by the institutions of suits against him, prevent any future exertions for a support; that if he is compelled to remain here to pursue the directions of the several insolvent laws of this state, he cannot embrace the opportunity that now offers, and therefore prays an act to release him from his debts, upon his taking the oath, and executing the deed, required by the act of eighteen hundred and five, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors; therefore,

Preamble.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for Baltimore county court, or any one of the judges thereof, to extend to the said John Carruthers the benefit of the act*, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and of the several supplements thereto, without any proof that the said John Carruthers has given the notice required by the said act, and the several supplements thereto.

Benefit of insolvent laws extended to him.

CHAP. XLVIII.

An Act to widen and alter the direction of Ten Feet Lane, in the City of Baltimore. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 475.

Passed Dec 23.

See 1807, ch. 143.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that it would add much to the beauty and public convenience of the city of Baltimore, to widen and alter the direction of that part of Ten Feet Lane which lies between Chatham-street and Vulcan-alley; therefore,

Preamble.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the city commissioners of the city of Baltimore, be and they are hereby authorised and directed, upon the application of Caleb Dorsey Goodwin and Thomas Beale Dorsey, of John, through whose ground the contemplated alteration of Ten Feet Lane passes, to lay open as a public street or highway for ever, that piece or parcel of ground situate and being in the city of Baltimore, and contained

City commissioners on application may lay out certain ground as a public street, &c.
