Passed Dec 24.

An Act to prevent Nuisance in the neighbourhood of Fisheries on the River Susquehanna and at the Head of the Chesapeake Bay. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 564.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that persons owning fisheries situate on the river Susquehanna, and at the head of the Chesapeake Bay, neglect, at the end of the fishing season, to remove the pickle, cleanse the vessels used in curing fish, and suffer great quantities of fish to remain on the shore, which becoming putrid incommode and endanger the health of the neighbourhood; therefore,

Penalty for neglecting to remove putrified fish.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if any person or persons using fisheries or a fishery on the west side of the river Susquehanna, shall for the space of ten days after the expiration of the fishing season, neglect to remove any putrifying pickle from the fishing shores; and cleanse the vessels used in curing fish, or suffer quantities of fish to remain and putrify on the fishing shores, any person thus offending shall forfeit, on proof thereof being made, for the first offence five dollars, and shall immediately remove such putrid fish and pickle, and cleanse the vessels used in curing the fish, and on refusal or neglect so to do for the space of five days thereafter, and proof thereof being made, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding twenty dollars for every such offence.

How to be recovered.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all fines and forfeitures incurred under this act shall be recovered as small debts are recoverable be-
