To be laid out in straightest direction on ground will admit.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall lay out the said road from the calls before mentioned, in the straightest and best direction that the nature of the ground will admit of, and with as little inconvenience to the landholders through whose land the said road may pass as possible.

Damages to be ascertained.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, shall ascertain and value, if required, what damages may be sustained by any person or persons over whose land the said road may pass, taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages, if any, and the valuation shall be made, and the amount thereof paid, as aforesaid, to the parties respectively interested, before the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall proceed to open the said road; Provided always, that if any person or persons through whose land the said road may pass, or his, her or their guardian or trustee, shall conceive themselves aggrieved by such valuation and assessment of damages by the said commissioners, or a majority of them, it shall and may be lawful for any justice of the county in which the land lies, on application of the party interested, or his, her or their guardian or trustees, to issue his warrant, under his hand and seal, directed to any constable of the county, commanding him to summon twelve disinterested freeholders of the county, to appear on a day by the said justices to be appointed, on the land of the person or persons as aforesaid, or for whose benefit such application shall be made, and the said freeholders, having first made oath before said justice of the peace that they will without favour, affection or partiality, assess the damages sustained by the person or persons, at whose request or for whose benefit such inquisition shall be taken, by reason of opening the aforesaid road through his, her or their land, shall thereupon proceed to assess and value the damages accordingly, of which the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have had at least five days notice, and shall have returned the damages so assessed to the said justice of the peace, and such inquisition and valuation shall be final and conclusive; Provided always, that the said road shall not pass through any house, yard, garden, meadow or orchard, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof.

Proviso.

CHAP. CV.

passed Dec 24,

An Act to lay out a Road in Baltimore County. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 575.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Baltimore county, that it would be of great public benefit to have a road laid out from the Pennsylvania line, nearly against Hedrick's tavern, to intersect the road laid out from the end of the Falls turnpike at or near Fronk's mill; therefore,
