

CHAP. 130.

Passed Dec. 25.
Benefit of insolvent laws extended to him.

* Ch. 110.

An Act for the relief of Lewis J. Dugas, an Insolvent Debtor. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 610.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of Baltimore county court be and they, or any one of them, are hereby authorised and directed, to extend to Lewis J. Dugas the benefit and relief of the act of assembly, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five*, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the supplements thereto, without compelling him to obtain the assent of two thirds in amount of his creditors, in the same manner, and upon the same conditions, as if he had obtained the assent of two thirds of his creditors to his release under the same.

CHAP. CXXXI.

Passed Dec 25.

Benefit of insolvent laws extended to him.

† 1805, ch. 110.

An Act for the relief of George Stine, of the City of Baltimore. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 610.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That upon the application of George Stine to the judges of Baltimore county court, or to any one of them, during the recess of the said court, praying the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state, the said judges, or any one of them, shall be authorised to extend to the said George Stine, the full benefit of the insolvent laws thereof, without his being required to prove a residence of two years within the state of Maryland, provided that the said George Stine shall in all other respects comply with the provisions of the said insolvent laws.

CHAP. CXXXII.

Passed Dec 25.

An Act to authorise the Sheriffs and Collectors of the several Counties of this State to complete their collections. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 611.

Viz. Those whose term of office expired in 1809, empowered to collect until 1st December 1811.

CHAP. CXXXIII.

Passed Dec 25.

Preamble

An Act for the relief of James Fulton, of the City of Baltimore. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 612.

WHEREAS James Fulton, of the city of Baltimore, has represented to this general assembly, that as one of the late firm of Alexander and James Fulton, he became indebted to a large amount to sundry persons, which debts the said firm by reason of misfortunes and losses in trade were rendered unable fully to pay; that on the eighth day of November, in the year eighteen hundred and four, in pursuance of the agreement and direction of a large majority in number and amount of their creditors assembled at a general meeting, he, together with his partner Alexander Fulton, by deed duly executed, and since acknowledged and recorded, did convey, assign and transfer, all their real and leasehold estate, in which they, or either of them, were interested, as also all their goods, wares and merchandizes, and books of accounts, and all debts and sums of money due or owing to them, and all the property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind, to which the said Alexander and James Fulton, or either of them, were in any way interested, unto Luke Tiernan and Alexander McDonald, in trust for the be-