

An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, without compelling him to produce any evidence of his having resided within the state of Maryland for the two years last previous to his application for the benefit thereof, in the same manner as if he had actually resided within this state, agreeably to the provisions of the said act, and the several supplements thereto. CHAP. 51.

CHAP. LII.

A Further Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to regulate the Inspection of Tobacco.* Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 67. Passed Dec 27, 1801, ch. 63.

WHEREAS James Calhoun, senior, of the city of Baltimore, hath, by his petition to this general assembly represented, that the warehouse by him erected and contracted for with the justices of the levy court for Baltimore county, in virtue of the powers vested in them by an act, entitled, An additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act to regulate the inspection of tobacco, passed at November session seventeen hundred and ninety-nine(a), has been found to be insufficient to contain the quantity of tobacco sent for storage to the said warehouse, in consequence whereof the said James Calhoun, senior, hath erected other buildings adjacent, and adjoining to the said warehouse, for the purpose of receiving, storing and inspecting tobacco, which have been used as such by the inspector thereof: And whereas, it hath been further represented, that doubts are entertained by the levy court of Baltimore county, whether under the provisions of the said act, the said additional buildings can be considered as part of the said warehouse; and it appearing reasonable that the said additional buildings should be considered as part of the said warehouse, therefore, Preamble. † 1789, ch. 26.

(a) Ch. 87, which was repealed by 1801, ch. 63, together with the act of 1789, ch. 26.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the levy court of Baltimore county, or the majority of them, shall approve of the building or buildings adjoining or adjacent to the said warehouse, built by the said James Calhoun, senior, as convenient and safe for the inspection of tobacco, in such case the said building or buildings, or such thereof as may be so approved of, shall thereafter be taken and considered as part of the said warehouse, subject to the same inspection, and entitled to the same storage, as the said warehouse now is. If certain buildings are approved of to be considered as part of warehouse.

See ch. 145, and Nov. 1812, ch. 112.
