

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the street aforesaid shall not be extended or opened through the property of any individual injured thereby, until the damage by them sustained and assessed as aforesaid, shall be first paid or secured to be paid to their satisfaction, together with legal interest thereon from the time of ascertaining the damages by them respectively sustained.

CHAP. 133.
Street not to be opened till damages are paid or secured to be paid.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That in case the obstructions in the said street are not removed within twenty days after the money charged and assessed as aforesaid is paid, or tendered, or secured to be paid as aforesaid, the city commissioners aforesaid are hereby authorised and directed to remove the same without delay, and to charge the expense of such removal in equal proportion among the several persons benefitted by opening and extending the aforesaid street, according to the benefit which each may have been estimated to have received agreeable to the assessment and valuation aforesaid.

Relative to removal of obstructions

CHAP. CXXXIV.

An Act for the relief of James Keys, an Insolvent Debtor, of the City of Baltimore. Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 150.

Passed Dec 27.

Sec Ch. 108.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges, or any one judge of Baltimore county court, be and they, or any one of them, are hereby authorised and directed to extend to James Keys the benefit and relief of the act of assembly passed at November session eighteen hundred and five*, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the supplements thereto, without compelling him to produce the assent of two-thirds, in amount, of his creditors; and to extend and afford to the said James Keys, all the benefits, advantages and provisions, of the aforesaid acts and the supplements thereto, in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions, as if he had obtained the assent of two-thirds of his creditors to his release under the same.

Benefit of insolvent laws extended to him.

* Ch 110

CHAP. CXXXV.

A Supplement to an act authorising a Lottery to raise a sum of money for the purpose of making a permanent Bridge over the River Monocacy, in Frederick County. Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 150.

Passed Dec 27, 1810, ch. 124.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry Williams, Thomas Jones, Abraham Hebling, Joseph S. Smith, Joseph Little, Joseph Taney, John Crabster, Lewis Motter, Philip Nunamaker, Patrick Read, George Troxal, John Grable, Henry Spalding and Michael Stover, or such of them as shall undertake to act under this law, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners in the place and stead of the persons named as commissioners in the act of assembly passed at November session eighteen hundred and nine†, to which this is a supplement, and they are hereby invested with all the powers and authorities vested by the aforesaid law; Provided always, that the commissioners herein named, or such of them as shall undertake to act under this law, before they shall proceed to sell any ticket or tickets in any lottery or lotteries which may be proposed by them, shall give bond to the state of Maryland, in the same penalty and in the same condition as is prescribed by the original law aforesaid, which bond shall be

Commissioners appointed in place of those appointed by former act.

† 1810, ch. 124.

Proviso.