

cause to be drilled, said persons, separate from his company, if he shall think proper; Provided, that they shall be drilled on the same days, at the same place, and as often as his company is required to meet by this act. CHAP. 182.
Proviso.

51. AND BE IT ENACTED, That out of the militia enrolled as is in this act directed, there shall be formed for each battalion at least one company of grenadiers, riflemen or light infantry; and that to each brigade there shall be at least one company of artillery, each of the non-commissioned officers and privates or matrosses of which shall, within twelve months after their enrollment in such company, provide himself with a sword or hanger, under the penalty of a sum not exceeding ten dollars, nor less than five dollars, at the discretion of a company court-martial, and a further sum not exceeding ten dollars, nor less than five dollars, for every year he shall remain unprovided as aforesaid; and that to each brigade there shall be attached at least four troops of horse, each of the dragoons whereof shall, within twelve months after his being enrolled therein, arm and equip himself in the manner prescribed by the act of congress, under the penalty not exceeding twenty dollars, nor less than five dollars, and a further sum not exceeding twenty dollars, nor less than five dollars, at the discretion of a company court-martial, for every year he shall delay his armament and equipment as aforesaid; and every citizen so enrolled, armed and equipped, shall hold his arms, ammunition, accoutrements and horse, free and exempt from all suits, distresses, executions, or sales for debt, rent, or the payment of any taxes; and the governor and council are hereby authorised, wherever it may be found necessary, to organize battalions and regiments of riflemen and artillery, and companies of horse or flying artillery, and appoint the requisite officers; and when said corps or companies shall have uniformed themselves, the governor and council are hereby authorised to loan them the necessary arms and field pieces, agreeably to the provisions of this act.

See ch. 213, s. 9, 10, and November 1812, ch. 128, s. 4 and 5.

52. AND WHEREAS in addition to the many other advantages which would result, an immense sum of money would be saved to the citizens by adopting a uniform for the state, BE IT ENACTED, That the uniform for the infantry of this state shall be, for general officers, their aids-de-camp and brigade inspectors, long dark blue coat faced with buff, buff collar and cuffs, yellow buttons and buff under clothes, long boots and chapeaux-de-bras. For field, company and staff officers, long dark blue coat edged with red, red collar and cuffs, white buttons, dark blue pantaloons edged with red for winter, and white under clothes for summer, black gaiters or half boots, chapeaux-de-bras and black cockade. For non-commissioned officers and privates, short dark blue coat, red cuffs and collar, white buttons, blue pantaloons, black gaiters and shoes or half boots. For riflemen, dark green frock or hunting shirt or trowsers. For cavalry, short coats and pantaloons of dark blue cloth edged with red, long half boots, a helmet or cap of leather covered with bear-skin. For artillery, long dark blue coats faced with red, red collar and cuffs, yellow buttons, blue pantaloons black gaiters or half boots and chapeaux-de-bras.

See ch. 213, s. 6.

Grenadiers—artillery—troops of horse—Governor and council may loan arms.

Uniform for general officers, their aids and brigade inspectors.

For field, company, and staff officers

For noncommissioned officers and privates.

For riflemen.

For cavalry.

For artillery.