CHAP. CXII.

A Further Additional Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to regulate the Inspection of Tobacco. Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 448.

Passed Dec 23; + 1801, ch 63

WHEREAS it appears that the justices of the levy court for Baltimore county, in virtue of the powers vested in them by an act passed at November session eighteen hundred and three, chapter ninety-five, entitled, An act to authorise the levy court of Baltimore county to establish two additional warehouses in the city of Baltimore for the inspection of tobacco, did contract with Cumberland Dugan and John O'Donnell for the erection of one of those warehouses, in the city of Baltimore, under the denomination of Dugan and O'Donnell's Tobacco Inspection Warehouse; that before the said warehouse was one half built, John O'Donnell died, and since his death no building, nor other improvement of any kind, hath been erected on his ground allotted for said warehouse, but that Cumberland Dugan has built upon his ground according to contract, which building hath been found insufficient to contain the quantity of tobacco sent for storage and inspection to the said warehouse, in consequence whereof the said Cumberland Dugan hath erected other buildings adjacent and adjoining to the said warehouse, for the purpose of receiving, storing and inspecting to-
