

CHAP. 112. bacco, which buildings have been used as such by the inspector thereof: And whereas, it hath been further represented, that doubts are entertained by the levy court of Baltimore county, whether under the provisions of the above act of eighteen hundred and three, the said additional buildings can be considered as part of the said warehouse, and an act having passed the general assembly at November session eighteen hundred and eleven, chapter fifty-two, authorising the levy court of Baltimore county to consider and take in the additional buildings of James Calhoun adjoining his inspection warehouse, if approved by the levy court, as a part of his said warehouse; and it appearing reasonable that both these inspection warehouses should be put on the same footing as well as to wharves as buildings, therefore,

Levy court approving of building to consider them as part of warehouse

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the levy court of Baltimore, or the majority of them, shall approve of the building or buildings adjoining or adjacent to Dugan and O'Donnell's warehouse, built by the said Cumberland Dugan, on Dugan's wharf, as convenient and safe for the inspection and storage of tobacco, in such case the said building or buildings shall thereafter be taken and considered as a part of the said warehouse, subject to the same inspection, and entitled to the same storage, as the same warehouse now is, so that Calhoun's warehouse and Dugan and O'Donnell's warehouse, in the city of Baltimore, be both placed on the same footing.
