

CHAP. 92.

be impleaded; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said trustees, by the name aforesaid, to cause to be made and used one common seal to authenticate all acts and instruments of writing respecting their business, and the same at pleasure to alter and renew.

Election of trustees to be annual

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That for the purpose of keeping up and perpetuating the trustees of the Jerusalem Church, an election shall be held in each and every year hereafter, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, at which election each contributor or person holding an interest in said property, shall be entitled to a vote; and for the purpose of ascertaining who are so entitled, the trustees shall record, in a book for that purpose, the names of all persons who have contributed to or associated for the purpose of purchasing the property aforesaid, and which said vote, and interest in said property, may be assigned or transferred, by a simple transfer or assignment in writing, under the hand of the party, attested by one witness or more.

Trustees to meet for transacting business

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said trustees now appointed, or who may be hereafter elected, or a majority of them, and their successors, from time to time, as occasion may require, may and shall meet together to transact the business and superintend and protect the property put under their trust and care, and shall make, constitute and alter, such rules and orders for regulating their own proceedings, and the management of the temporal concerns of the Jerusalem Church, as they shall judge most fit; Provided, that such rules and regulations be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this state.

Proviso.

CHAP. XCIII.

Passed Jan 26, 1814 An Act for the benefit of the Heirs of William Ringgold, of Kent County. Lib. TH. No. 4, fol. 105. A Private Act.

A Supplement, 1815, ch. 96.

CHAP. XCIV.

Passed Jan 26, 1814 An Act to open a Road from John Cain's Tavern to Berlin, in Frederick County. Lib. TH. No. 4, fol. 107.

Commissioners appointed to lay out road

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Patrick Magill, Grafton Duvall, Benjamin West, James S. Hook and Theodore Beall, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised, as commissioners, to lay out and open, at the expense of the petitioners for said road, or such of them as may be willing to contribute thereto, a road not exceeding thirty feet in width, beginning at or opposite the tavern of John Cain, on the main Harper's Ferry road, from thence passing between the lands of Abraham Easterday and Perry Hilleary, thence along the lane dividing the lands of George Dutterow and Theodore Mitchell, to Benjamin Rice's merchant and saw mills, thence through the lands of Thomas Hawkins, by the widow Nyswonger's to Thomas Frazier's, and along his land as now established to James Fenley's spring, thence to the mouth of the lane dividing the land of Roger Nelson and Tobias Belt, thence as the road now runs to Berlin on the river Potomac; Provided, that the said road shall not be laid out through any building, orchard, garden, yard or meadow, of any person, without his or her consent in writing first had and obtained.

Proviso.