CHAP. XLIX.

*A Supplement to the act*, entitled, An act to incorporate a Company to make a Turnpike Road from the City of Baltimore to Havre-de-Grace. Lib. TH. No. 4, fol. 277.* Passed Jan 16, 1815
* Dec 1813, ch. 167

See 1817, ch. 133,

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That wherever the location of the new road, authorised by the act to which this is a supplement, may have departed from the bed of the old road, it shall be lawful for the justices of the levy courts of either Baltimore or Harford counties, where such departure may exist, to authorise the shutting up of such part of the said old road as shall be departed from by the said new road, if the same be desired by the party through whose land such part of the said old road may pass. Old road may be closed where desired

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That wherever by the departure of the new road from the bed of the old road it may be necessary to extend to the new road any road which at present leads into and intersects the old road, it shall be lawful for the justices of the levy court of Baltimore or Harford counties respectively, as the case may be, to cause to be located, marked and established, as public roads, the extensions of such roads from the intersection of the old road to the new road, in such direction as the nature of the ground will admit, and most likely to preserve their public utility, with the least private inconvenience, and in width not exceeding that of the road thus extended; Provided however, that the shutting up of said road shall be authorised in those instances only where, in the opinion of the said justices, the public convenience of travelling shall be usefully and sufficiently preserved by the extending of the intersecting roads as herein before provided. Intersecting roads may be extended
Provisq.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all transfers of stock in said company, executed either in person or by attorney, in the presence of the secretary of the said company, shall have the same effect and validity as if such transfers had been executed in the presence of the president or treasurer of the said company. Transfers executed in presence of secretary to be valid
