

a third cents; for every four wheeled pleasure or travelling carriage and two horses, eighty cents; horned cattle per head six and a fourth cents; hogs and sheep per head two cents; for every sleigh and two horses fifty cents; for every sleigh and one horse twenty-five cents; for every cart and two oxen thirty-three and a third cents; which rate of tolls shall at all times be made public and kept in some convenient place for the inspection of travellers.

CHAP. 33.

10. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if the said president and directors, or their successors, or any person by their authority, shall demand or receive any greater rates or tolls for passing said bridge than are herein before allowed, or shall neglect to keep the said bridge in good repair for the space of ten days at any one time, they so offending shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of thirty dollars, one half thereof for the use of Washington and Berkeley counties respectively, and the other half for the use of the person who may sue for the same; Provided, that no suit or action shall be brought unless within sixty days after such offence shall be committed.

Penalty for receiving greater tolls than allowed by this act.

Provided

11. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said president and directors shall keep a just and true account of all monies received by their several and respective collectors of tolls for crossing the said bridge, and shall make and declare a dividend of the profits and income thereof among all the stockholders, first deducting therefrom all contingent costs and charges, and such proportions of the said income as they may deem necessary to provide against the decay and for repairing the said bridge, and shall on every first Monday in June and January in every year, publish the dividend to be made of the said clear profits thereof among the stockholders, and of the time and place where and when the same shall be paid, and shall cause the same to be paid accordingly.

Account to be kept of monies received by collectors of tolls.

12. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any person or persons shall wilfully, or without the orders of the said president and directors, pull down, break or destroy, with intent to injure any part or parts of the said bridge, or of any abutment, pier or piers, or of any of the toll-houses, grates, bars or other property of the said corporation, appertenant to or erected or made for the use and convenience of the said bridge, or the persons employed in conducting the business thereof, or shall wilfully without the orders and consent of the said corporation, or any person or persons authorised by them, obliterate, deface or destroy, the letters, figures or other characters, in any written or printed list of the rates or tolls affixed, or to be affixed in any place or places for the information of passengers, and others, or who shall wilfully and maliciously obstruct or impede the passage on or over the said bridge, or any part or parts thereof, he, she or they, so offending, shall, and each of them shall, forfeit and pay to the said president, directors and company, not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace, in like manner and subject to the same rules and regulations, as debts under fifty dollars may be recovered; and he, she or they, so offending, may and shall remain liable to actions at the suit of the said president and directors for further damages for such offence, if the said sum or sums herein mentioned be not sufficient to repair and satisfy such damages.

Penalty on persons pulling down, &c. any part of bridge &c.
