

upon, and to ordain, establish and put in execution, such by-laws, ordinances and regulations, as to them shall seem conducive to the interest of the said company, and necessary to the good government and orderly management thereof, the same not being contrary to the laws of this state or of the United States; and generally to do and execute all such acts, matters and things, as to them shall or may appertain to do.

CHAP. 133.

CHAP. CXXXIV.

An Act for the benefit of the Heirs of John Richardson, late of Caroline County, deceased. Lib. TH. No. 4, fol. 630. A Private Act. Passed Jan 23 1816

CHAP. CXXXV.

An Act to ratify and protect the Title of the Third Haven Monthly Meeting of Friends, commonly called Quakers, in Talbot County, in and to the Lots of Land on which their several Meeting Houses stand, and to incorporate certain Members of their Society as a Body Politic for their benefit. Lib. TH. No. 4, fol. 631. Passed Jan 23 1816

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly, by Preamble the petition of the members of the Third Haven Monthly Meeting of Friends, commonly called Quakers, that the members of that branch of the society of friends that is called and known among the friends, and in the county aforesaid, by the name and distinction of The Third Haven Monthly Meeting of Friends, have peaceably and quietly held, under and in virtue of a deed of conveyance, made on or about the twentieth day of August, in the year seventeen hundred and five, by a certain Philemon Armstrong, of Talbot county, to Thomas Taylor, William Dickinson and Daniel Powell, and their heirs, in trust for the use and benefit of the Third Haven Monthly Meeting of Friends, agreeably to the metes and bounds expressed in said deed, all that lot or parcel of land on which the Third Haven Meeting House stands, the same lot being part of the tract of land called Londonderry situate, lying and being, in the county aforesaid, near the head of Third Haven Creek, and containing by estimation the quantity of three acres of land more or less; also that they have in like manner peaceably and quietly held, used and occupied, under and in virtue of a deed of conveyance made and executed on or about the sixteenth day of August, in the year seventeen hundred and one, by a certain Ennion Williams of Talbot county aforesaid, to John Lowe, Robert Clark and William Worriow, and their heirs, for the use and benefit of the said Third Haven Monthly Meeting of Friends, agreeably to the metes and bounds expressed in the said deed, all that lot or parcel of land on which the Bay side Meeting House stands, the same lot being part of the tract of land called Ennion's Range, situate, lying and being, in the county aforesaid, and containing by estimation the like quantity of three acres of land more or less; also that they have peaceably and quietly held, used and occupied, under and in virtue of a conveyance deed, made and executed on or about the twenty-fifth day of the sixth month, commonly called June, in the year seventeen hundred and five, by John Jadwin, Edward Clark and Benjamin Parrott, to George Bowes, Abram Morgan and David Airy, and their heirs, for the use of the Third Haven Monthly Meeting of Friends aforesaid, agreeably to the