

term of thirty days after rendering such account, and if not then paid, it shall be lawful for the bailiff, and he is hereby required, to proceed to the collection thereof if necessary, by seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of every person refusing or delaying to pay such assessment, and the said bailiff shall account for the amount of such assessment with the said commissioners, at or before the end of three months after the receipts of every such list or assessment, and pay the sums collected under the penalty of double the amount thereof.

CHAP. 136.

11. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the several penalties^(a) and forfeitures which may be incurred by any person in virtue of this act, shall be recovered before any justice of the peace of the said county upon the complaint and oath, or affirmation, of one competent and credible witness, and shall and may be levied by commitment of the offender in execution to the sheriff of said county, until payment of the penalty and fees, or by process in the nature of a feri facias, directed to the bailiff of the said town, for levying the same by seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender; and the fees to the bailiff shall be the same as are or may be allowed by law to sheriffs for executing a writ of feri facias; and the said penalties and forfeitures, and all monies arising by virtue of this act, shall be accounted for by the officers or person collecting or receiving the same, to the said commissioners, and be applied by them to such purposes as may improve or concern the regulations of the said town.

Penalties and forfeitures

(a) See 1818, ch. 11.

12. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners shall have full power and authority to appoint a supervisor or supervisors of the streets, lanes and alleys, of the said town, and may order and direct in what manner the said streets, lanes and alleys, shall be kept up and repaired, and may allow such supervisor such compensation for his services as they may deem reasonable.

Supervisors

13. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all money levied on and collected from the property on the west and east side of Will's Creek in the said town, except so much as may be necessary to pay an equal proportion of the salary to the clerk and bailiff, shall be laid out and expended in the improvement of that side of the town on which it was levied and collected as aforesaid.

Money levied east and west of Will's creek

14. AND BE IT ENACTED, That any justice of the peace for the county aforesaid shall, in the first instance, be the judge of the said election, and shall return his certificate thereof to the said commissioners on the day first appointed for their meeting, and the same shall be filed and recorded among their proceedings; and at every subsequent election the commissioners of the said town, or a majority of them, shall be judges of such election, and the proceedings thereof shall be recorded under their direction; and every commissioner before he shall proceed to open an election, shall take an oath, or affirmation, that he will faithfully and impartially permit every person to vote at such election who shall be qualified to vote for a commissioner of the said town, according to the directions of this act, and that he will not suffer any person to vote at such election who shall not in his judgment be qualified to vote as aforesaid.

Judges of elections &c.