

tobacco the old inspector or inspectors are hereby obliged and directed to deliver, well nailed, lined and fit for shipping, to the new inspector or inspectors.) describing in the said manifests the marks, numbers, gross, tare and net weights, of such tobacco, and shall sign a receipt at the foot of each manifest for all such tobacco received from the old inspector or inspectors, and shall deliver both manifests to the old inspector or inspectors, the one of which manifests shall be by him or them lodged, within ten days thereafter, with the clerk of the county, under the penalty of three hundred dollars on each inspector neglecting to make such manifests, and the same penalty on the old inspector or inspectors who shall neglect to lodge the same with the county clerk within ten days after such list shall be delivered to him or them, unless a reasonable excuse be offered by such new or old inspector for any such neglect; and the new inspector or inspectors is, and are hereby declared to be, answerable to the owners of any notes mentioned and described in such manifests, so far as to produce the same hogshead or hogsheads of tobacco belonging to any owner; and the said new inspector or inspectors shall be liable for, and answerable to, the old inspector or inspectors, for all damage that shall happen to such tobacco mentioned in the manifests aforesaid, through the negligence of the said new inspector or inspectors, during the time of his or their serving as inspector or inspectors.

40. AND BE IT ENACTED, That every justice who shall be appointed, and shall attend to execute any duty imposed by this act, shall be allowed the sum of two dollars for every day he shall necessarily attend in consequence of such appointment, in the next county assessment; and every inspector who shall meet and attend the justices aforesaid at the court house, shall be allowed two dollars per day, in the next county assessment, for his attendance.

Allowance to justices.

41. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the inspector or inspectors of tobacco at the several warehouses within this state, shall immediately on the delivery of every hogshead of tobacco at the warehouse whereof they are inspectors, weigh and give a receipt for such tobacco, if required by the proprietor, or person bringing the same to the said warehouse, expressing therein, that the same is for uninspected tobacco, which receipt shall be given up to the inspectors, upon the said tobacco's being inspected, and before the inspectors shall be obliged to deliver notes therefor.

Inspectors to receive receipt for tobacco delivered to them.

42. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall not be lawful for any person to erect or build, or cause to be erected or built, any chimney, except brick or stone, within one hundred yards of any public warehouse in this state; and where any chimney, except brick or stone, is already built within the distance aforesaid from any public warehouse, the owner or proprietor of the said chimney shall pull down the same, or on refusal or neglect so to do in six months after the passing this act, it shall and may be lawful for the sheriff of the county, and he is hereby required, upon notice, under the penalty of one hundred and fifty dollars, to cause such chimney to be pulled down and demolished; and the inspector or inspectors of the several warehouses shall, under the penalty of sixty dollars, give notice to the sheriff of their respective counties of any chimnies being erected, or already built, contrary to the provision in this act, as soon as may be after such chimney may be discovered.

Wooden chimnies not to be built within 100 yards of any warehouse.