CHAP. CCXLVIII.

Passed Feb. 4, 1817

An Act directing the Register of the Land Office for the Western Shore to Record the Certificate of a Survey made of a Manor commonly called Lord Baltimore's Manor, on the Great Glades, in Allegany County. Lib. TH. No. 5, fol. 411.

Preamble

WHEREAS there is in the land office for the western shore, a paper (and which has been produced to this general assembly) purporting to be an original certificate of a survey of a manor, made by Francis Deakins, then one of the deputy surveyors of the province, in pursuance of a special order to him directed from the then governor, bearing date the twenty-second of April, in the year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, by which it appears that the said Deakins, on the eighth day of May, in the year aforesaid, surveyed and laid out for his Lordship, the right honourable Frederick, Lord Baron of Baltimore, all that tract or parcel of land called —, lying in Frederick, (now Allegany) county, containing seventeen thousand seven hundred and fifty acres of land; and although the said certificate is thereon endorsed "for the office," no record thereof appears to have been made in the land office; and it appearing that sundry surveys made of lands adjoining to the said manor, or tract of land, call to begin at the end of, or to run to, with or from, some one of the lines thereof, by the name of
