

CHAP. 101. sales with the said commissioners; and if any person shall think himself aggrieved by any seizure made by the clerk of said market, he may appeal within three days to the commissioners of said town for redress, or any one of them, and he or they shall have power and authority to make such order therein as they may deem just and proper.

House, &c vested in commissioners

10 AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said market-house, and the stalls, shambles, issues, and appertinances thereof, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the said commissioners and their successors, for the use and in trust for the benefit and advantage of the inhabitants of the said town; and the clerk of the said market shall have full power, under the direction of the said commissioners, to rent and hire out the stalls and shambles of the said market-house upon the best terms, and to keep a fair and just account, as well of the persons renting as of the profits arising from such rents, and to render duplicates of such accounts to the said commissioners, annually, on the first Monday of April, or oftener if he shall be required, and the said rents and profits shall be paid to the order of the said commissioners, and be applied to the uses directed by this act; and in default of payment the same shall be recovered in the name of the said commissioners, of any tenant or person refusing or delaying to pay the same, by the warrant of a justice of the peace, as in the case of recovering small debts before a magistrate; and the clerk of the said market shall be allowed a reasonable compensation for his services, not exceeding the sum of fifteen pounds current money by the year, to be ascertained by the commissioners, and to be proportionably assessed and levied upon the inhabitants and owners of property in the said town, according to the respective valuations herein before directed to be made.

Part of an act repealed.

1. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the eleventh section of the act to which this is a supplement, passed at December session eighteen hundred and fifteen, chapter seventy-three, and the supplement to said act passed at December session eight-en hundred and sixteen, chapter one hundred and thirty-five, be and the same are hereby repeated.

CHAP. CII.

Passed Feb 4, 1815 An Act for the relief of the Poor of Caroline County. Lib. TH. No. 5, fol. 625.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Caroline county, that the existing law for the support of the poor of said county does not answer the purpose for which it was intended; therefore,

Trustees appointed
—Oath—Powers

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for the time being the several persons hereafter named be and they are hereby appointed trustees for the poor within the said county, and are empowered with full and sufficient authority to discharge the several offices, duties and trusts, reposed in and required of them, by virtue of this act; that is to say, Col. William Potter, Edmond Pendleton, James Houston, Richard Hughtitt, Peter Willis, Jeremiah Rhodes and John Jump, senior; which persons, or a majority of them, in case of the death or absence of any, are hereby required to meet at the poor-house of said county, on the first Monday of April next, and then and there qualify for the