CHAP. CXXXVII.

An Act relating to British Property liable to Confiscation. Lib. TH. No. 6, fol. 45.

Passed Feb. 6, 1815

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General(a) of Maryland, That all real estate which was liable to confiscation by the laws of this state, and which was not actually sold by the commissioners of confiscated property, or intendants of revenue, (except only the reserves westward of Fort Cumberland and the reserves in the cities of Annapolis and Baltimore) shall be liable to be taken up by a common warrant, special warrant, or warrant of resurvey, in the same manner, and on the same terms, as any vacant lands in this state may be taken up.

Property may be taken up by common warrant, &c.

(a) The word Assembly omitted in the engrossed law and record.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any person or persons shall have heretofore and since the session of the general assembly held in November seventeen hundred and eighty-five, taken up any such land, by either a common warrant, special warrant, or warrant of resurvey, the same shall be deemed and taken to be as good and available in law as if this act had at that time been in force, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; Provided always, that nothing in this law contained shall be construed to affect the right or interest which any person or persons may have heretofore acquired as informers, or otherwise, according to the laws of this state, relating to British confiscated property.

Land heretofore taken up deemed valid
