

CHAP 150.

Assessments heretofore made declared an augmentation of stock.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all assessments heretofore made by the present corporation, or by their authority, on individual stockholders, and collected, and all loans made by individual stockholders to the corporation, which assessments and loans have been by subsequent resolutions of the said corporation directed to be carried to the amount of stock and shares of such individual stockholders respectively, as an augmentation of stock or interest, shall be, and hereby are declared to be, augmentation of stock or interest in the said individual stockholders respectively, and as such shall be considered in the dividend to be made of any surplus monies arising from the sale authorised by this act, but shall not be considered as debts due from the corporation, to be paid out of the proceeds of such sale or otherwise.

Amount of debts to be ascertained, &c.

7. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the governor and directors of the Susquehanna Canal aforesaid, shall be and they hereby are authorised and empowered, to ascertain the amount of debts due from the company, and of all such sums as may in their judgment be necessary for completing, carrying on, repairing or improving, the said canal, and from time to time to assess all such sums on the members of the corporation, in proportion to their several sums and interest, and to appoint such times and places of payment as may in their opinion be necessary and proper; and if any stockholder in the said corporation, after two months notice of any such assessment, and of the time and place of payment, to be published in any two newspapers of the city of Baltimore, or served personally on him or her, or his or her agent or representative, or left at their usual place of abode, shall refuse or neglect to pay such assessment at the time and place so to be fixed, the share or shares of such delinquent stockholder, or so much thereof as may be necessary for paying such assessment, with all costs and charges increased by reason of such refusal or neglect, shall be and hereby is forfeited to the use of the said corporation, and may be sold and transferred by it for the purpose of raising the sum so due.

Arks, left at head of canal may be passed down, &c.

8. AND BE IT ENACTED, That whenever any ark, raft or boat, shall arrive within the range of the wing-dam at the head of said canal, and south of the rock called the Wild Cat Rock, and shall be left there by the persons having charge thereof, or shall not be removed by the said persons, when thereto required by the agent of the company, so as to leave the passage into the canal free and open, the governor and directors of the canal, or their agents duly authorised, shall be and hereby are empowered, to cause every such ark, raft or boat, to be taken into the canal, and passed down the same, to the place or places provided or to be provided for the safe keeping of arks, rafts and boats, and to act with respect to all such arks, rafts and boats, in the same manner, and to collect and receive the same tolls thereon, as if they had been brought into and passed down the said canal, to the said place or places, by their owners respectively, or the persons having the care thereof.

CHAP. CLI.

Passed Feb 10 1818 An Act to Incorporate the Havre-de-Grace Ferry Company. Lib.

T.H. No. 6, fol. 75.

Subscribers incorporated—style—effect in law.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John H. Barney, William R. Brooke, George Bartoc, Joseph Brownley, Thomas T. Bond, William Coale, Cyrus Courtney,