

CHAP. 168. cretary, and Samuel Harden, Samuel Moore, Thomas Kelso, Martin F. Maher, John Sullivan, David Burke and John Hanna, managers, shall conduct the affairs of the society conformably to the constitution and articles formed and agreed to by the members previously to the passage of this act, and shall be entitled to hold their said offices until an election shall be made by the members as is herein directed.

Meetings—Powers of society

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the members of the Hibernian Society of Baltimore shall meet on the first Saturday in March next after the passing of this act, at such place and hour as the president of the said society shall appoint, and a majority of the members assembled at such time and place of meeting shall have power, and they are hereby authorised, to pass all such by-laws as they may think necessary; to provide for fixing the time of the anniversary, and other meetings of the society, and notify the same to the members; to specify what officers shall be chosen annually for the society, their powers and duties, and prescribe the time, place and manner, of their election, and of filling any vacancies that may occur; to provide for the admission and expulsion of members; to provide for the collection of annual and other contributions; to provide for the distribution and disposition of the funds of the society to such charitable purposes as are designated in this charter, and in payment of the necessary expenses of the society; and in general to provide for conducting and managing the business of the society, and for exercising all the powers, rights and privileges, granted or authorised by this act for the benevolent purposes herein before mentioned, in as full and ample a manner as any other corporate body might or could do; and a majority of the members which shall be present at each meeting of the said society for the annual election of officers, shall have power to alter, repeal, revise and amend, all or any of the by-laws which shall be made as aforesaid, and to make others, which shall be subject to like repeal and revision; provided, that such by-laws shall not be inconsistent with this charter, nor in contradiction to any of the laws of this state.

CHAP. CLXIX.

Passed Feb 12 1818
* Ch. 16

A Supplement to an act*, entitled, An act to establish a Bank, and incorporate a Company, under the title of The Planter's Bank of Prince-George's County. Lib. TH. No. 6. fol. 103.

Non-residents not to subscribe for stock on first day

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no person not a resident of the county of Prince-George's shall be at liberty to subscribe any part of the stock of said bank during the first day on which the subscription books may be opened, but in case the whole capital stock of said bank shall not be subscribed on the said first day, then any person, not resident of Prince-George's county, may subscribe for the same agreeably to the provisions of this act.

Additional commissioners

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That Robert W. Bowie and Samuel Sprigg, of Prince-George's county, be and they are hereby appointed additional commissioners of the said bank, and that they be vested with the same powers, and authorised and required to perform the same duties, to all intents and purposes, as if they had been named in the act to which this is a supplement.