CHAPTER C.

An Act to appoint Commissioners to examine, survey and lay out, the Road therein mentioned. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol 183.

Supplementary, and other acts, 1799, ch. 59. 1802, ch. 65, ch. 80. 1803, ch. 67. 1804, ch. 57. 1807, ch. 148. 1808, ch. 97. November 1812, ch. 27.

Commissioners appointed to examine and lay out road.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Mackubbin, Charles Carnan, Robert Long, John Partridge and Nicholas Merryman, of Nicholas, or any three of them, shall be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, to examine, survey, lay out and mark, a public road, from Gravelly hill, near the city of Baltimore, in a direction towards Liberty town, to the Frederick county line at or near Philemon Barne's plantation, of the width of sixty-six feet, and in as straight a line as the nature of the ground will permit, running the said road by Randall's town, and crossing the falls at Allen's mill, and running the said road by Little's tavern, and on the south side of the same, and the said commissioners are to consider not only the distance but the situation and goodness of the ground on which the said road is to pass.

By 1802, ch. 80, s. 7, an allowance is made to the commissioners, &c.

To return courses and plots thereof to clerk of county

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners appointed to examine, survey and lay out, the aforesaid road, after they shall lay out and mark the same, are hereby directed to return the courses and plots thereof to the clerk of Baltimore county court, which shall be by him recorded, and the said road so laid out shall forever afterwards be held and adjudged in all courts of law or equity a public road and common highway.

The location of the road made by the commissioners named in this act, declared null and void by 1803, ch. 67, and other commissioners appointed, and another designation of the road given.

CHAP. CI.

Passed Dec. 31.

An Act to appoint a Trustee to take care of that part of the Indian Lands in Dorchester County which was laid off for, and occupied by, a certain Molley Mulberry, lately deceased. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 184.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that a certain Molley Mulberry, one of the tribe of the Choptank Indians, had laid off for her by the commissioners appointed to contract for and purchase the lands commonly called the Choptank Indian Lands, in Dorchester county, the quantity of twenty acres of the aforesaid land; and the said Molley Mulberry having lately died, and leaving no descendant, therefore,

Trustee appointed to take care of land.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry Waggaman be and he is hereby appointed trustee for the purpose of taking care of the land heretofore laid off for the aforesaid Molley Mulberry, and the same to let out for the ensuing year, and until the legislature shall make further order therein, and to account for the rents and profits thereof in such manner as the legislature shall hereafter direct.
