CHAP. XCIX.

A Further Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to regulate the Inspection of Salted Fish. Lib. TH. No. 6, fol. 313.*

Passed Feb 2, 1819
*1817, ch. 114.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That nothing contained in the first section of the act to which this is a supplement, in relation to the size of fish barrels, shall prevent the same barrels from being passed in case they are of the following dimensions, to wit: The staves thereof shall be twenty-eight inches in length, and half an inch thick, the diameter of the cuthead shall be seventeen inches and five eighths of an inch, the chimes shall be one inch and one eighth in depth, and the bilge of each and every barrel shall be not less than twenty inches in diameter; Provided nevertheless, that the said barrels are made of the same kind of timber, with the same number of hoops, and in the good and workmanlike manner directed and prescribed in the first section of the original act aforesaid.

Nothing in former act shall prevent barrels being passed in case they are of certain dimensions.

Proviso.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the inspector, or his deputy, in the city of Baltimore, shall hereafter receive, for inspecting every barrel, half barrel, or tierce of salted fish of any kind, the sum of twelve and a half cents, herrings excepted; and that for inspecting every barrel, half barrel, or tierce of herrings, the said inspector, or his deputy, in said city, shall receive six and a quarter cents, and no more; which said fees shall be paid by the person or persons requiring said fish to be inspected; and all fish shall be branded with the year, in figures, when inspected.

Allowance for insp. eing barrels, &c.
