

CHAP. 21. ready subscribed, or hereafter to be subscribed, towards the building of a church, parsonage-house and market-house, will be of a more immediate benefit to said town; therefore,

Residue of monies
—how to be applied.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the residue of the monies arising from said lottery, after payment of prizes and necessary expenses, as directed in the said original act, be and the same shall be applied by the commissioners of said town, or a majority thereof, towards the building of a church, parsonage-house and market-house, in said town, the building and erecting of which the said commissioners, and their successors, are hereby authorised to direct and superintend, any thing in the said original act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners to give bond.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, before the sale or disposal of any ticket or tickets in said lottery, instead of the bond by the original act directed to be given, shall give bond to the state of Maryland, in the penalty of twelve thousand dollars, conditioned, that they will well and truly apply the money arising from said lottery, within two months after the drawing thereof, to the payment of the prizes drawn by the fortunate adventurers in said lottery, and the necessary expenses incurred in the management thereof, and the residue of said monies to the building a church, parsonage-house and market-house, in the town of Havre-de-Grace, in aid of a private subscription already made towards the erecting of said buildings.

CHAP. XXII.

Passed Jan 8 1803. An Act to prevent Swine and Geese from going at large in the Town of New-Market in Dorchester County. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 225.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the inhabitants of the town of New-Market, in Dorchester county, that great inconveniencies and injuries have resulted from the going at large of swine and geese in said town; for prevention thereof,

Penalty for suffering swine and geese to go at large.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons residing within the limits of said town, after the first day of March next, to seize and secure any swine or geese that may be found at large within the limits of said town belonging to any person residing therein, and the same retain in his, her or their possession, till the owner or owners thereof shall pay the sum of fifty cents for every hog, and twelve and a half cents for every goose, so taken up, one half for the use of the person or persons taking up and securing the same, and the other half for the use of the poor in said county; and in case the owner or owners of any swine or geese seized and secured as aforesaid, shall not, within three days after notice of such seizure, pay the said sum of fifty cents for every hog, and twelve and a half cents for every goose, seized as aforesaid, to the person or persons seizing the same, in such case the whole of such seizure shall be absolutely forfeited for the uses aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for the person or persons seizing to sell the same, at public vendue, in the said town, within five days after such seizure, and to apply the monies arising from such sale to the uses aforesaid.

Penalty on persons receiving fines not paying them over to trustees of poor.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any person or persons receiving fines or forfeitures under this act, shall not within ten days af-