

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

COLLECTORS.	Session Ch. S.
In cases of sales by collectors of the county taxes, and their dying or removing without making a deed, or refusing, the commissioners of the tax to order, on application, the collector for the time being, to make such conveyance,	1815 171
Collectors of the county taxes to be allowed the term of one year from the expiration of the time for which they are appointed, to collect all balances,	— 173 2
The 3d section of the act of 1815, ch. 173, respecting the sheriff and collector of Baltimore county, repealed,	1816 17
Collectors to be annually appointed for the county tax in and for the city and county of Baltimore, &c.	1817 142
COLLECTORS . . .
Appointed to collect and preserve estates of deceased persons, empowered to bring suits, as an executor or administrator might do,	1802 101 5
— The property recovered or received to be delivered over to the person obtaining letters testamentary, &c.	— — — —
— Proceedings directed in case of neglect or refusal,	— — — —
COLLEGE.
The funds of King William's School, in Annapolis, vested in Saint John's College,	1801 104
Where by law the property of deceased persons would have devolved on the free schools of any county, and they are abolished, it is vested in the college therein, if any, and the trustees are empowered to sue therefor,	1802 101 11
— Saving to the different schools their rights,	— — — —
— Such monies, &c. to be applied as other public funds,	— — — 12
A college by the name of Baltimore College, established in the city or precincts of Baltimore,	1803 74 2
No religious or civil test to be required of the scholars, or attendance on any particular place of worship,	— — — —
— Professors or teachers not to be preferred on account of their religious profession,	— — — —
Trustees therein named appointed,	— — — 3
— The principal and vice-principal to be ex officio trustees,	— — — 14
Vacancies, how to be filled,	1807 97 2
The trustees empowered to appoint from their board, a president and vice president,	1803 74 2
— To receive donations not exceeding 20,000 dollars, and to raise by lotteries 30,000 dollars, for buildings, without any tax to Baltimore,	— — — 4
— To take and hold lands, &c. for maintaining the college, and the same to transfer,	— — — 5
— the yearly value not to exceed £9000,	1807 97 3
The trustees, and their successors, enabled to sue and be sued, as any other corporation,	1803 74 6
— Empowered to appoint a principal, vice-principal and professors, with proper tutors and assistants, &c.	— — — 9
The said principals, &c. to be known and distinguished, as one learned body or faculty, by the name of The Principal, Vice Principal and Professors, of Baltimore College in the State of Maryland, and in that name capable of exercising such powers as may be delegated to them.	— — — 7
— They shall, (together with the students and necessary servants,) be exempted from all rates and taxes on their salaries, and from military duties, except in the case of actual invasion, when military law is declared,	— — — 8
Directions for the meetings of the trustees, or a quorum to frame regulations, ordinances, &c.	— — — 10
The trustees empowered to have, make and use, a public and privy seal,	— — — 11
	1807 97 2
	1803 74 12