

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Session	Ch.	S.
CONTRACTS . . . Made between the master of any vessel in distress, and any pilot, shall be void, but the pilot entitled to a reasonable reward,	1803	63	22
CONVEYANCES. . . All acknowledgments of deeds thereafter made for the conveyance of land, before any chief justice of a district, within his district, or any associate justice within his county, declared to be as good and valid in law as if made before any judge of the general court, or two justices of the peace,	1801	74	5
— Each of the judges shall out of court, have, use and exercise, that might or could have been done by any judge of the late general court, of the former court of appeals, or by any chief justice of a district court,	1805	65	13
The chancellor empowered to execute deeds to purchasers of Indian lands from the state's agent,	1802	45
A deed to be made in cases under the act to direct descents, where an election has been made by the husband in right of his wife, and the valuation paid,	—	94	6
Conveyances to be made by the chancellor to purchasers of confiscated property,	—	100	11
Deeds, &c. received within the time limited by law, since the act of 1804, ch 55, or to be received, (until further provision) to be recorded as if received before that act,	1814	103
Extracts of deeds that were by law transmitted to the late general court, to be transmitted to the clerks of the court of appeals, and recorded, &c.	1805	10	4
The county clerks to include in all extracts of deeds where part of a tract of land is conveyed, the courses of the land expressed in the conveyance,	—	65	20
Copies to be valid, &c. as those from the general court,	1806	90	7
All deeds for land, &c. executed or acknowledged since the 30th of November 1805, or that should be before the 1st of March 1806, before any judge of the general court, chief justice, or one or more associate justices, to have the same effect as if the court had not been abolished,	1805	65	20
Conveyances to be made by the chancellor for confiscated property,	—	—	37
All deeds heretofore made for conveying or passing any estate of inheritance or freehold, or declaring or limiting any use or trust, or conveying any estates for above seven years, and all acknowledgments of a release or relinquishment of a right of dower of lands, &c. by feme covert s, in which the precise form prescribed by law has not been observed, declared valid, as if in the precise form. &c.	—	93	99
Provided it shall appear by such acknowledgment that the same was made willingly, and out of the presence or hearing of her husband, or words to that effect,	1807	52	2
A similar provision as to deeds heretofore made and acknowledged by power of attorney, in which the acknowledgment is made by the attorney in his own name,	—	—	—
Same, as to deeds heretofore made and acknowledged before two justices of the peace, as if made before a judge,	—	—	—
Same as to deeds of bargain and sale heretofore made and not indented, as if they had been duly indented,	—	—	—
Provided that in every other respect the said deeds have been executed, acknowledged and recorded, agreeably to the laws,	—	—	—