

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

CRIMES AND PUNISHMENTS.

	Session Ch. S.
ty, and all accessories thereto, may be tried in any court (having jurisdiction,) of the county in which he may be arrested, or into which he may be first brought,	1809 138 19
On suggestion, in writing, by a person indicted, that a fair trial cannot be had in the court, the record to be transmitted to any adjoining county within the same, or an adjoining district for trial,	— — — 20
— Directions as to the costs,	— — — —
Directions for the valuation of slaves and servants on sentence of death, or confinement, &c. and payment to the owner by the county,	— — — 21
— For the sale of slaves and servants for the remainder of their time, after confinement, &c. and for payment to the county,	— — — —
The estate of a person sentenced to confinement, or to be executed, liable (after paying the reparation) to the expenses of prosecution, &c.	— — — 22
— The court to cause the amount of reparation and costs to be certified to the keeper of the penitentiary,	— — — —
Where reparation is adjudged and not made, execution may be issued against the property for the value estimated by the court, but not to deprive the party of a civil action,	— — — 23
On acquittal, in a trial for a misdemeanor, or on pleading guilty and submission, the court may order that no compensation for attendance of the prosecutor be allowed,	— — — 24
The penitentiary house, near Baltimore city, appropriated for the reception of criminals, &c.	— — — 25
— Appropriation of the cells for the prisoners separately,	— — — 26
— Directions for the removal of persons convicted thereto, by the sheriff—and fine for wilful neglect,	— — — 27
— As to the treatment of prisoners, clothing, diet, labour, &c. See Penitentiary .	— — — —
Offenders escaping to suffer on conviction additional confinement and labour, and corporal punishment, as may be adjudged by the Baltimore criminal court,	— — — 32
— Keepers, deputies, or other persons corruptly aiding in such escape, to be sentenced, on conviction, to confinement, &c. not more than 15 years,	— — — 33
The criminal court of Baltimore to charge the grand jury at every term to inquire into the conduct of the keeper, &c. and to direct any number, not exceeding six, to visit and examine the penitentiary,	— — — 46
Measures directed to be taken on the completion of the building for the reception of criminals, and the commencement of this act,	— — — 49
— Manner of removing the criminals from the public roads for confinement in the penitentiary,	— — — 50
Persons convicted of crimes committed before this act, to be punished according to the laws then in force, or on their prayer, sentenced according to this act, as if committed since the passage thereof,	1811 2
Any person presented or indicted may submit to the court for a decision on the whole merits,	1809 138 51
— Such submission not considered as admitting the fact, or charging the person with costs, if not guilty,	— — — —
Nothing in the act concerning the amendment of judicial proceedings, to extend to criminal cases,	— — — 153 3
Regulations concerning the costs or fees of constables in criminal prosecutions,	— — — 169
The 3d section of the act of November 1787, ch. 44, relating to costs in criminal cases repealed,	1811 57
— Provided that there shall be deducted from such costs the same per centage as may or shall be paid by	— — — —