

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

INSOLVENT DEBT- ORS.	Session Ch. S.
ed from all debts, &c. contracted in his individual or copartnership capacity, at the time of his application,	1805 110 5
— Provided that he shall not thereby be discharged from the payment of any fine,	— — — —
— Provided also that any property which he shall thereafter acquire by gift, descent, or in his own right by bequest, devise, or in any course of distribution, shall be liable,	— — — —
— And that the discharge of such debtor shall not discharge any other person from such debt, &c.	— — — —
— The court empowered to allow such debtor to retain the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself and family,	— — — 6
— The court may direct the trustee to sell the property as they shall think most for the advantage of the creditors,	— — — 7
— The produce (after satisfying all judgments, incumbrances and liens,) to be divided among the creditors according to their claims,	— — — —
— But no judgment to be rendered after this act, or after the time of application, to be a lien on the real property,	— — — —
— Nor shall any process against real or personal property have any effect, except writs of fiery facias actually and bona fide laid before this act, or the time of application,	— — — —
— Trustees empowered to sue in their own names, and to prosecute suits commenced by the debtors,	— — — 8
— Proceedings directed, on allegation of fraud by the debtor, in disposing of his property, &c. to deceive his creditors,	— — — 9
— Or of his losing more than $100 by gaming at any time within three years,	1807 150 2
— Or of his having assigned his property, with intent to give an undue preference to any creditor or security,	1805 110 9
— On proof of such allegations, the debtor to be precluded from the benefit of the act,	— — — —
— On conviction of swearing or affirming falsely, to suffer as in cases of perjury,	— — — —
— The trustee may be allowed a commission, not exceeding 8 per cent.	— — — 10
— On complaint by a creditor, or on his becoming insolvent, the trustee may be called before the court, the complaint inquired into, and orders made,	— — — —
— He may be punished as for a contempt in case of not obeying such orders, or removed, and another appointed,	— — — —
— Provision made for the discharge of the bodies of petitioners imprisoned at the time, and for payment of the fees, &c.	— — — 11
— Such discharge not to operate as a discharge of the debts,	— — — —
— Provided that the debtor, if required, shall give bond, with security approved by the court or judge, for his appearance to answer the allegations of his creditors, or remain in confinement,	— — — —
— A time to be appointed for him to appear to answer interrogatories by the creditors, on not less than three months notice,	— — — —
— The court may limit a time for creditors to bring in their claims,	— — — 12
— May examine them and the debtors on oath or affirmation,	— — — —
— May direct issues on contested claims, and set apart any part of the estate therefor,	— — — —
— Any creditor colluding with a debtor to gain an undue preference, or for concealment of any part of his estate, or concealing any acknowledgment of the	— — — —