

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

LAND, AND LAND OFFICE.

	Session Ch. S.
the authority of this state, and not disposed of, made liable to be taken up as vacant land,	1804 105
A certificate of survey of land in Allegany county vacated, and the land revested in the state,	1807 98
— Directed not to be taken up till the legislature should make provision,	— — —
— The land made liable to be taken up in the same manner as if the provision in the act of 1807, ch. 98, had not existed, and that part of the act repealed,	1810 76 1
— But warrants not to be granted therefor before the 1st day of June 1811,	— — — 2
— Until the 1st of January 1813, not more than 600 nor less than 100 acres to be taken up by any one person, company, &c. by any species of warrant,	— — — —
— Not to affect any right before acquired in the said land,	— — — 3
Equitable estates in lands subjected to sale under writs of fiery facius ,	— 160
Copies from any of the books, papers, &c. in possession of the register of the land office, (not matter of record,) to be received in evidence when attested under seal, to have the same effect as the originals,	1812 82
Certificates of survey of land before made in Washington county, not compounded on, &c. and liable to proclamation, vacated (after the 1st of October 1813,) and placed on the same footing, with all other vacant land in said county, without being bound by or paying any regard to the forementioned survey,	— 166
— But not liable on any warrant issued before the first day of October 1813,	— — —
The registers of the land office directed to make out annually, between the first of March and first of May, for the commissioners of the tax, a list of all the certificates ready for patent, expressing the name of the land, the quantity, and the person, and in case of resurvey the name of the original tract, and the quantity of vacancy added,	— 191 32
— Manner of transmitting such lists to the several counties,	— — — 33
The register of the land office to make at the same time a list of all the lands disposed of in virtue of the act of November 1788, ch. 44, &c. not before returned, and transmit it to the commissioners for Allegany county,	1812 191 39
— Allowance to the registers for their services under the act of 1812, ch. 191,	1816 241
The governor and council directed to contract with the register on each shore for making indexes of the names of all the lands surveyed and patented since the revolution,	May 1813 6
— The indexes to be continued for future grants or surveys—fees to be paid by the party making the survey or obtaining the grant,	1816 184 1
The register of the land office for the western shore directed to enter amongst the records the certificate therein mentioned, purporting to be a survey of a tract of land commonly called Lord Baltimore's Manor, on the Great Glades, in Allegany county,	— — — 2
All real property which was liable to confiscation, and not sold, (except the reserves westward of Fort Cumberland, and in Annapolis and Baltimore,) liable to be taken up by warrant as vacant land,	— — — 3
— Where such land has been taken up by warrant since the session of 1785, the same to be valid, &c.	— — —
— Not to affect the rights acquired by informers,	— — —
Whenever land shall be taken up under a common or special warrant, or warrant of resurvey, possession may be given in evidence, &c.	— 248
	1817 137
	— — —
	1818 90