

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Session Ch. S.
MILITIA, . . . . . — Such persons liable to fine for neglect or refusal, as non-commissioned officers and privates are for absence from parade,	1811 182 36
Privates capable of serving as musicians may, with the consent of the captains, act as such in any other company, on which their fines for absence from their own companies may be remitted,	— — — 37
Any person of age, (and those between 18 and 21, by consent of their parents, guardians, &c.) may join any uniformed company willing to receive them, when formed within the regimental district,	— — — 38
A majority of such uniformed company empowered to determine on days of training throughout the year, over and above those appointed—notice to be given,	— — — —
— Empowered to impose fines by laws,	— — — —
— Limitation of such fines, and manner of collection	— — — —
Whenever a number of men not less than forty-eight, shall have formed themselves into a uniform company, they shall make a return to the commandant of the regiment or extra battalion,	— — — 59
— He shall thereupon inspect or cause his adjutant to inspect the same, and apply to the governor and council for commissions for proper persons to command said company, and forward the requisite certificate,	— — — —
— The governor and council shall thereupon transmit an order to the armourer of the nearest arsenal for the delivery of the number of arms, &c. therein mentioned,	— — — —
— But the order not to be delivered without a bond with security for safe keeping and re-delivery of said arms,	— — — —
Directions as to persons residing in the precincts of the city of Baltimore,	— — — 40
Provision made for the return and collection of fines, &c. imposed by company courts martial,	— — — 41
— For the return and collection of fines imposed by regimental, brigade, division, and general courts martial, &c.	— — — 42 — — — 43
Captains, &c. to make return annually in October, on oath, to the commanding officers of regiments, of all Quakers, &c. exempt from militia duty, under the penalty therein mentioned,	— — — 44
— Manner of collecting the sums payable by them, as a consideration for their exemption,	— — — —
Courts martial may acquit any delinquent, upon its appearing that sickness, or some such sufficient excuse was the cause of the violation,	— — — 45
Paymasters to give bond to the state in the penalty of $1000, for the discharge of their duty, with security to be appointed by the field officers,	— — — 46
— Money paid to them to be appropriated to expenses, and then to the purchase of arms, &c. for persons unable to purchase them for themselves,	— — — 47
Commandants of regiments, &c. authorised to establish places of deposit for the arms, &c. belonging thereto, and to order the commandants of companies to return the arms, &c. thereto, after every parade,	— — — 48
— Penalty on commandants of companies not complying therewith,	— — — —
— Such commandants of regiments, &c. to employ a person to keep and arrange the arms, &c. for which he is to be paid out of the fines,	— — — —
Penalty on auctioneers, constables, or other persons, selling any arms, &c. which there is reason to believe are the property of the state,	— — — 49
In districts where a uniform company may be formed, and a number of persons shall not wish to uniform	— — — —