

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Session Ch. S.
OFFICERS. . . . .	— His duty under the act respecting such writs, and forfeiture for refusal, 1809 125 1  See Habeas Corpus                      Officers judicial and executive of the United States exempted from militia duty, 1811 182 1                      — Same as to custom house officers and port officers, — — —                      — Same as to state officers as therein mentioned, — — —                      Provision for the collection of officers fees in case of the death, &amp;c. of the sheriffs, before the periods there-in stated, } June 1812 9 2                      In all appointments to be hereafter made it shall be the duty of the governor to nominate, and by and with the consent of the council, appoint all such officers as are directed to be appointed by the executive, either by the constitution or laws of this state, } 1817 199  } 1817 189  } Confirmed by 1818 159
OFFICERS IN THE MILITIA.	See Militia.
OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS.	Lands in Allegany county granted to officers and soldiers not subject to sale for taxes whilst remaining in possession of the original grantees, their heirs or devisees, 1812 191 38
O'HARA, SUSAN . . .	Of Anne-Arundel county—money to be levied for her support, 1813 148
ONIONS, ANNE . . .	Of Prince-George's county—same, 1812 39
ORDINARY KEEPERS	Ordinary licenses in Baltimore directed to be granted by the criminal court, 1804 65 2                      Monies collected in Baltimore and Annapolis to be paid into the treasury, — 93                      — Part of 1784, ch. 69, and ch. 49, repealed, — — —                      In all cases of application to the Baltimore city court for ordinary licenses, it shall be in their discretion to grant or refuse the same, 1816 193 14                      — The penalty for selling without license increased, — — — 15                      During the recess of the county courts, the clerks empowered, when no associate judge resides in the county, to grant permits in all cases where an associate justice could, and in the same manner, — 242                      — The money to be paid and accounted for as for other licenses, and recognizance filed, &amp;c. — — —                      — The 47th clause of the act of 1805, ch. 56, repealed, — — —
NOTE. By the 9th section of the act of June 1780, ch. 8. "for sinking the quota required by Congress of this State of the bills of credit emitted by Congress," duties on ordinary licenses were to be received by the clerks of the several counties, and by them accounted for, and a commission of 4 per cent. to be allowed to them.
ORPHALINE CHARITY SCHOOL.	Incorporated, &amp;c. in Baltimore, 1807 145
ORPHANS. . . . .	See Guardians.
ORPHANS COURTS.	Proceedings revived in Talbot and St. Mary's counties, 1800 2  } 3                      The register authorised to pass accounts under 50 dollars, 1802 101 4                      Sheriffs bonds, where they had not been given, directed to be taken before the 1st of January, 1807, by the justices of the orphans courts, 1805 10 2                      Sheriffs bonds that had been taken by them, declared valid as if by the judges of the common law courts, &amp;c. 1806 14