

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Session Ch. S.

PENITENTIARY.	change parts of the lots therein mentioned with the levy court of Baltimore county,	1807 132
	Offences mentioned for which the punishment may be by death or confinement in the penitentiary,	1809 138 2
		4
		5
		6
		7
		8
	Punishment for burning the penitentiary,	8
	Punishment of slaves in certain cases in the discretion of the court, instead of being sent to the penitentiary,	9
	Every person convicted of any felony before deemed clergyable, to be sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for the time therein limited,	11
	The court to decide and declare the time (within their respective periods prescribed,) of confinement according to this act,	16
	The penitentiary house, then in part erected in Baltimore county, in the vicinity of the city, under a resolution passed in 1804, appropriated, when put in order, for the reception of criminals, &c.	25
	The cells of the penitentiary to be appropriated to the purpose of confining males and females convicted of offences punishable with imprisonment and labour, but the males and females to be kept separate and apart from each other,	26
	All prisoners to be subject to the visitation and superintendance of the inspectors,
	Persons convicted to be removed by the sheriff at the expense of the county, to the penitentiary, and to be there kept, &c.	27
	Fine on sheriffs for wilful neglect,
	The criminals to be kept in solitary cells, on low and coarse diet, for such time as the court in their sentence shall direct, not to be more than a half nor less than a twentieth part of the time,	28
	The inspectors to direct the infliction of the said solitary confinement, at intervals, &c.
	Directions as to clothing, diet, labour, instruction therefor, and the duties of the inspectors or the keeper,	29
	Such offenders to be employed in work every day, except Sundays and Christmas day; the hours of working prescribed, after which the working tools are to be removed,	30
	In order to encourage industry, accounts to be kept of the value of the work, and the excess (after paying expenses,) to be applied to the reparation adjudged, and then to the offenders at their discharge,	31
	Offenders labouring under any acute or dangerous distemper not to be discharged (unless at their own request,) until they can be safely discharged,
	Offenders escaping, to suffer, on conviction, additional confinement, &c.	32
	Keepers, &c. aiding in such escape, to be confined in the penitentiary not more than 15 years,	33
	Means to be used for preventing contagious diseases on the introduction of prisoners,	34
	Directions for having the walls in the apartments white washed, and the floors washed by the prisoners,	35
	The prisoners may be permitted to take the air and to work in the yard within view,
	One or more apartments to be fitted up as an infirmary, the sick to be removed there,	36
	The governor and council to appoint a suitable person to be keeper of the penitentiary, who shall be removed whenever occasion may require. and another	